

Updating your bank account details for payouts

<h2>From the Payments tab in Seller Hub, or Payments in My eBay, you can see which bank account is currently set up to receive your payouts, and update your details when you need to. To update your bank account for payouts:Go to Payments in Seller Hub or My eBay.Select Edit next to the payout method you want to update.Select Add and follow the steps to add your new payout method.You can choose your preferred payout method any time by selecting Manage next to the payout method. It usually takes 2 business days for changes to be confirmed and payouts to be enabled for your new bank account. We'll need to verify your details when you update any relevant information on your account. You can verify your bank account by logging into your bank, uploading a bank statement, or using microdeposits. Learn more about microdeposits and verifying your bank details in our article on Registering as a seller.<h2>Changing to a business account</h2>If you want to use a business bank account to sell on eBay, you should register as a business account. If you registered as an individual, here's how to switch to a business account:Go to My eBay and select Account.Select Personal information, then select Edit next to Account type.Select Business account, then select Submit.Once you've changed to a business account, you may need to submit additional verification information. If we need to verify any information, we'll notify you by email and place a banner in Seller Hub letting you know what to do next.</h2>
