

Upload your collection

Easily upload your sports cards or collectible card games collections directly from your desktop.

Use our tool for easily uploading your card collections without having to immediately publish your listings.

With our tool for uploading your collection, you can create listings for your sports cards or collectible card games without having to immediately publish your listings.

How to upload your card collection

You can upload your collection on desktop. The tool currently isn't available on the eBay app or mobile web. Here's how find the tool and upload your collection:

- Go to My eBay.

- Select Collection beta on the left-hand side.

- Select Get started in the Add with a CSV section.

- Select Select template on the Upload your collection page and download the .csv template you need.

- Fill out your chosen .csv file and upload your collection.

- Make sure to stay on the page until your upload is complete. If you leave the page at status "waiting" your upload won't be completed.

- You can upload up to 1,000 cards to your collection.

- Your upload history can be viewed for up to 90 days. Upload history applies exclusively to file data.

Best practices for uploading your collection

Remember the following for the best experience when using the upload your collection tool:

- Use only the templates provided on the bulk upload page. Avoid using a custom .csv template

- Only upload collectible card games or sports cards collections. Other types of card collections aren't currently available

- You only need to upload your collection once. Your items will be duplicated if the same sheet is uploaded

- twice

- If you experience any problems uploading your collection, review the error

report for next steps.</h2>

<h2>upload your collection,uploading your collection,uploading your listings,uploading trading cards,uploading listings,upload your listings,trading cards,bulk upload,upload in bulk,bulk upload your collection,collection upload</h2>