

Feedback manipulation policy

Feedback manipulation, which is any attempt to artificially increase your feedback score or lower another member's, is not allowed.

undefined

To help maintain trust in eBay, we have rules to make sure feedback can't be unfairly manipulated.

What is the policy?

Any attempt to manipulate feedback

or

Detailed Seller Ratings (DSRs) is not allowed. This includes:

- Offering to buy, sell,

- trade, or give away feedback

- Registering multiple accounts or working with others

- to exchange feedback with the purpose of artificially increasing a feedback

- score

- Referencing eBay feedback in a listing title or

- description

- Conducting transactions with the purpose of increasing a feedback

- score, or to obtain Top Rated Seller status or site privileges

- Manipulating another

- member's feedback through repeat purchases, or a pattern of leaving positive feedback with

- consistently low DSRs

- Buying or selling eBay user

- accounts

Activity on eBay is required to follow this policy, the eBay

User Agreement and all applicable laws, as well as respect the rights of third parties. If it doesn't, eBay may take action consistent with applicable laws and the eBay User Agreement, and may even be legally required to do so. Such actions may include, as an example only: Removing the listing or other content, issuing a warning, restricting activity or account suspension.
