

PI - Virtual currency policy - Prohibited, Restricted and Counterfeit items

<h2>GUIDE.SUMMARY

What is the policy?

Starting July 13, 2021, listings for virtual currency are not allowed. Examples of virtual currency are Bitcoins, Litecoins, and other similar cryptocurrencies.  Listings for certain accessories that do not include virtual currency are allowed as long as the item doesn't include virtual currency. Examples are virtual currency mining hardware, virtual currency hardware wallets, and collectible physical coins in compliance with the Collectible currency policy. Why does eBay have this policy? Certain items are not allowed to be listed when eBay manages payments. </h2><h2>GUIDE.TALKING_POINTS Why can't I list my virtual currency? Starting July 13, virtual currency will no longer be allowed to be sold on eBay. This includes Bitcoins, Litecoins, Ethereum, and all other similar cryptocurrencies. NFTs are not&nbsp;virtual currency. NFTs&nbsp;are allowed to be sold in the correct categories. See the <a href="https://www.ebay.com/help/policies/prohibited-restricted-items/digitally-delivered-goods-policy

?id=4289">Electronically delivered goods policy for more information about NFTs.

Virtual currency is not allowed. </h2>