

PI - Stolen property policy - Prohibited, Restricted and Counterfeit items

<h2>GUIDE.TALKING_POINTS Deeper why of policy <ul> <li>eBay urges its sellers and buyers to comply with all governmental laws and regulations. Since the sale of stolen property is prohibited by law, or may cause harm to eBay or its members, sellers are not permitted to list it on eBay. State and federal law prohibit the knowing sale of stolen property. Most states in the U.S. prohibit the sale of consumer goods with missing or altered serial numbers. Therefore, sellers are not permitted to list such items on eBay.</li> </ul>  

<h2><h2>GUIDE.SUMMARY What is the policy?
The sale of stolen property violates state, federal and international law. We will notify law enforcement of any attempts to sell stolen property on eBay. <ul> <li>Stolen property from private individuals or property taken without authorization from companies or government cannot be listed for sale</li> <li>If you see stolen property on eBay, please contact local law enforcement immediately</li> </ul> Why does eBay have this policy? This policy ensures buyers and sellers comply with government laws and regulations; it maintains  a safe and reputable marketplace. </h2>