

eBay Main Street

GUIDE.SUMMARY What eBay Main Street is a global grassroots action network that keeps people informed and engaged on public policy issues that affect ecommerce. eBay Main Street members enjoy:

- Important news & information about policy issues that affect online buyers and sellers
- The ability to participate in grassroots campaigns that help positively affect ecommerce public policy decisions
- A community of 600,000+ like-minded ecommerce policy advocates

An example of some of the policy issues that are the focus of eBay Main Street include Internet Sales Tax, Cross-Border Trade and Ticket Resale. Who

- Anyone can become an eBay Main Street member.

However, some letter and petition campaigns to legislators are limited by geographic area so only members in those areas can participate (for example: a letter campaign to a U.S. state legislator that requires you to be a resident of that state).

Internal Information

- CS TEAM: If you get any questions you cant answer, please reach out to the Government Relations Team at government_relations@ebay.com for help. As always, we appreciate your support and assistance.

Where

- US/North America

GUIDE.TALKING_POINTS Is the eBay Main Street website a real company website or am I being phished? Yes, www.ebaymainstreet.com is a real eBay corporate website and the email you received is not a phishing attempt. This website has been managed by our Government Relations team for over a decade now and is quite popular with customers interested in keeping up-to-date on legislative and regulatory issues that could affect their ability to buy and sell online. Why are you asking me to get involved in something that is political? eBay Main Street isnt about politicsit exists to provide eBay customers like you with up-to-date information on legislative and regulatory issues that could affect your ability to sell and/or buy online. eBay Main Street currently has more than 600,000 members who have signed up to receive information about legislation affecting internet-enabled businesses and are interested in making their voices heard in the halls of government. If you are interested in becoming a member, just go to <http://www.ebaymainstreet.com/join> and follow the simple instructions. Do I have to participate in this to continue to buy and/or sell on the platform? Absolutely not. The eBay Main Street website is open to the public and can be visited at any time. Even if you do choose to become a Main Street member, you are only agreeing to receive information about important legislation and you are not committed to doing anything else. Participation is completely voluntary. Is my Main Street membership or participation in Main Street campaigns made public? Your Main Street membership is never made public, nor is your personal information ever shared or sold to third parties for marketing purposes. Should you choose to participate in any sort of activity where we send a letter to your public officials on your behalf, we may provide your name and address to your public officials only as proof that you are their constituent. If you have further concerns, you can read the eBay Main Street Terms of Use here: <http://www.ebaymainstreet.com/terms-of-use> What happens with my personal information (e.g., home address, email, etc.) when I join? eBay Main Street only asks for personal address information so you can be matched to your personal legislators. Your personal information is never sold to or shared with third parties for marketing purposes. If you have further concerns, you can read the eBay Main Street Terms of Use here: <http://www.ebaymainstreet.com/terms-of-use> Who can participate? Anyone can become an eBay Main Street member. However, some letter and petition campaigns to legislators are limited by geographic area so only members in those areas can participate (for example: a letter campaign to a U.S. state legislator that requires you to be a resident of that state). </h2>