What is the policy?

 Used underwear and socks are not allowed. Other used clothing must follow our policy. Used underwear and socks are not allowed, even if they are clean. Examples include boxer shorts, panties, briefs, diapers, and athletic supporters.

Bras are not considered underwear Used clothing must be properly cleaned and include a statement that the item has been properly cleaned Listings for used clothing cant include language or images that fetishize the item, such as personal statements about the person modeling the item Why does eBay have this policy? This policy helps maintain a professional marketplace while allowing some used items to be offered for sale.

</h2><h2>GUIDE.TALKING_POINTS Why cant I list used underwear or socks?

For health and hygiene reasons, weve decided that these items cant be sold on eBay. Why do you allow used bras? We dont consider bras to be underwear. Our general rule of thumb is that used underwear items that normally come in contact with the genitals are not allowed on eBay. What was wrong with the photo of my used clothing listing? eBay has restrictions on the images you use to represent your item. Listings of used clothing must not include images of nudity or sexual content.

Please note that the modeling of used shoes is only allowed from the knee down. Also, we dont allow sellers to model only feet. When modeling used shoes, the feet must be inside the shoe.
