

Report a seller for a policy violation

You should only report a seller if you think they're violating our policies, for example:

- They offer to sell you a listed item outside of eBay
- They don't intend to complete the sale
- They sent threatening messages or used abusive or vulgar language
- They published another member's contact information
- The seller has provided you with false contact information
- You suspect the seller is under the age of 18

This isn't an exhaustive list – you'll find all of our policies here. We take all reports seriously, and if we find that a member has been violating our policies, we will take appropriate action. For privacy reasons, we're unable to discuss any actions we take against other eBay members.
