

Selling Manager and Selling Manager Pro

You can now access all of the features of Selling Manager and Selling Manager Pro in Seller Hub.

If you're a Premium or higher Store subscriber, you're automatically opted in to Selling Manager Pro features in Seller Hub.

It's free to use Seller Hub - opens in new window or tab. You'll only pay for any subscriptions you currently have, such as Selling Manager Pro or Stores. You can find out more in our article about Seller

Subscribing to Selling Manager Pro With Selling Manager Pro you can access additional reporting, inventory management, and automation features. Selling Manager Pro features are available in Seller Hub for $15.99 per month as an add-on package for Starter or Basic Store subscribers, or free with a Premium, Anchor, or Enterprise Store subscription. See Choose a Store subscription - opens in new window or tab for details. Note: If you have Selling Manager Pro as of November 15, 2021, you'll be able to continue access it with no further charge. However, after November 15 there will not be any additional sign ups available for Selling Manager Pro. Tip You'll need to subscribe on the same eBay country site where you opened your Store.
