

PI - Credit and debit card policy - Prohibited and Restricted Items

<h2>GUIDE.SUMMARY

What is the policy?

 The following types of cards are allowed: Inactive credit and debit cards that expired at least 10 years ago and cant be reactivated Blank plastic cards with or without magnetic strips The following types of cards and money orders are not allowed:

Active credit, debit, or store credit cards, including prepaid credit cards

Non-embossed bank or store credit cards Current and active money orders Why does eBay have this policy? This policy helps sellers and buyers follow government regulations while also protecting cardholder privacy

</h2><h2>GUIDE.TALKING_POINTS Why do collectible credit cards need to be expired for at least 10 years? We consider this enough time for the card not to be fraudulently used. Why cant I list my prepaid card? We dont allow prepaid cards to be listed on eBay to help prevent crimes such as theft, money laundering, and fraud. Even prepaid credit cards with a zero-balance cant be listed, as they may be reloaded without proper consent. Why cant I list a money order? Because of the risks associated with counterfeit money orders, current and active money orders arent allowed.

Why cant I list bank gift cards? Bank gift cards arent allowed due to money-laundering concerns because they are open-loop cards that can be used anywhere. Only closed-loop gift cards can be listed i.e. cards designed for use with a particular merchant. </h2>
