

LP - Payment methods policy - List Practices

<h2>GUIDE.SUMMARY

What is the policy?

 The following payment methods are not allowed: <ul> <li>Sending cash through the mail</li> <li>Point-to-point cash transfer services such as Western Union or MoneyGram</li> </ul> Direct contact information can only be exchanged after eBay checkout is complete. This includes asking buyers to get in touch with details of alternative payment methods.  The following payment methods are offered at eBay checkout:

<ul> <li>PayPal</li> <li>PayPal Credit</li> <li>Credit card or debit card</li> <li>Apple Pay</li> <li>Google Pay</li> <li>Payment upon pickup</li> <li>Wire transfer facilitated by eBay (select categories only)</li>

<li>eBay gift card or eBay voucher or eBay Bucks</li> </ul> Listings in some categories may offer the following additional payment options: <ul> <li>Bank-to-bank transfers (also known as bank wire transfers and bank cash transfers)</li> <li>Checks</li> <li>Money orders</li> <li>Online payment services (for example, Escrow.com, Allpay.net, CertaPay, Fiserv, Nochex.com, XOOM)</li> </ul>

Available payment options may vary depending on the item price, listing category, and the buyer's device. Why does eBay have this policy? This policy helps offer safe, simple payment methods that strongly protect both buyers and sellers. </h2>
