<h2>GUIDE.TALKING_POINTS Replica Firearms Item not for an assault weapon Since replica weapons and parts are made to resemble the real thing (almost identically in most cases), we can't tell if a part is for a real or fake gun. Consequently, we don't allow you to list any item described as fitting an assault weapon, even if it is only for a replica. Markings on pre-1898 replicas In order to enforce our policy consistently for all items and all sellers, we require all replica firearms to be marked no matter when they were made. Putting a marking on a true antique or collectible could affect the value of the item; you probably don't want to do it. Please consult a collector for more tips about getting the most for your item. You might want to consider selling it somewhere else. Further Explanation Reason for policy For safety concerns and in order to follow laws and regulations, we restrict the kinds of weapons and accessories that can be sold on eBay. This includes certain Airsoft weapons and accessories as well as replica or imitation weapons. Be sure to follow all laws and regulationsas well as eBay policiesbefore buying or selling these items. Regarding replica guns, federal law requires that any toy, look-alike, or imitation firearm have a blaze orange marking affixed to it. </h2>
