If the item is selling to an international buyer, this GSP transaction will be counted toward their global performance. <h2><h2>GUIDE.DETAILED_INFORMATION <h2><h3>How GSP works</h3>  <ul> <li>Listing <ul> <li>Seller chooses GSP as a shipping option while listing their item.</li> <li>The Global Shipping Program then uses current customs information to determine which countries it can ship the item to.</li> <li>International shipping and import charges are estimated for each of the countries that GSP can ship the item to.</li> <li>The item listing displays item cost and domestic shipping (if any), as well as the international shipping and import charges.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Buying <ul> <li>GSP listings will have international shipping and import charge estimates displayed in the View Item page (final quotes are confirmed at checkout).

The international shipping and import charges are based on the buyers primary shipping address (unless the ship to address is updated) and will vary based on the buyers location.

The buyer completes the transactions and is charged the full amount. (The buyer has now paid in full and is not subject to any further shipping or import charges from eBay or the shipping carrier).

The buyer will see 2 transactions (1. Item and domestic shipping to the seller. 2. International shipping and import charges to the Global Shipping Center).

Shipping

The order details are received by the seller instructing them where to ship the package (Global Shipping Center).

Seller sends the package to the Global Shipping Center using eBay label printing or a carrier of their choice. (If using another carrier, seller should upload tracking into My eBay.)

Package is received at the Global Shipping Center and validated to ensure it can move forward internationally without issue.

International tracking information is added to the package and it is sent forward to the destination country.

The package is delivered to the buyer using local carriers in the destination country, partnering with the Global Shipping Center.

End-to-end tracking is available in My eBay.

Note: Buyers have paid in full, so there will be no shipping or import charges due upon delivery.

Resolution

INR/SNAD Cases can be filed if the item was purchased from a site offering eMBG.

The DL (internal use only) for the GSP team is: gspswat@ebay.com

Note: If a seller manually sends an invoice for a GSP item, the item will be removed from GSP.

GUIDE.SUMMARY

What

The Global Shipping Program (GSP) enables sellers to reach millions of buyers around the globe, but only ship domestically. Once an item sold via the program is received at the Global Shipping Center, the center handles all aspects of the international leg of the sale: preparing customs forms, remitting applicable import charges that are pre-paid by the buyer, and international shipping to the buyer - with tracking - using a fast, reliable carrier.</li> </ul> Where </ul> </li>GSP items listed on eBay.com can potentially show on other sites (e.g. CA, AU, etc.) if the item can be shipped to those locations.
