

Coupons policy

Sellers can list up to 25 coupons worth $100 in total per 30-day period, though certain restrictions apply.

We limit the volume and type of coupons that can be sold on eBay.

What is the policy? The following types of coupons aren't allowed:

- Expired coupons or coupons that will expire before reaching the buyer
- Coupons for "free" products
- Electronic "scanned" coupons
- Coupons for recalled items
- Coupon inserts containing other coupons

Up to 25 coupons worth $100 in total can be listed and sold within a 30-day period.

Only physical paper coupons can be listed. Unaltered coupon scans or photos that could be copied, printed, or redeemed cannot be included in the listing.

Activity on eBay is required to follow this policy, the eBay User Agreement and all applicable laws, as well as respect the rights of third parties. If it doesn't, eBay may take action consistent with applicable laws and the eBay User Agreement and may even be legally required to do so. Such actions may include, as an example only: Removing the listing or other content, issuing a warning, restricting activity or account suspension.

Visit Seller Help - opens in new window or tab to find details of any policy issues with your account or listings, and get the information you need to quickly resolve them.

Why does eBay have this policy? This policy helps reduce fraud and counterfeiting for coupon buyers and issuers.
