

Avoiding vehicle fraud

Be cautious about vehicles offered on Craigslist, AutoTrader, or other online sites that claim to be eBay transactions. They're not. If you're bidding on a vehicle on eBay, it'll appear in My eBay > Bids/Offer. If you're buying a vehicle on another site and someone offers eBay purchase protection or tells you they're associated with eBay, it's probably a scam. You're only covered by the eBay Money Back Guarantee for purchases made on eBay. Here are some ways to protect yourself:

- Don't give out personal or financial information
- Verify that the email is really from eBay. It should appear in your messages in My eBay.
- Don't send money using Western Union or MoneyGram

If you suspect a potential scam, let us know by forwarding the email to spoop@ebay.com. Learn more: <http://pages.motors.ebay.com/buy/security/index.html>

eBay Motors Security Center - opens in new window or tab

<http://ocsnext.ebay.com/ocs/sr?query=1457> Buying vehicles on eBay