<h2&gt;GUIDE.SUMMARY What &lt;ul&gt; &lt;li&gt;Falsifying or omitting contact information such as a member's name, address, or telephone number when registering on eBay is not allowed. It's also not allowed to use a fax or disconnected number as a telephone number.</li&gt; &lt;li&gt;As stated in the User Agreement, a member may not post false, inaccurate, misleading, defamatory, or libelous content (including personal information).</li&gt; &lt;li&gt;Patently False Contact Information: When a member provides obviously false contact information on an account in an effort to mask their true identity</li&gt; &lt;/ul&gt; Why The success of our marketplace depends on trust and transparency. Providing false contact information undermines both of these. Trading partners also need to be able to communicate with each other. False contact information impedes communication between members and increases the likelihood of: <ul&gt; &lt;li&gt;Unpaid Items</li&gt; <li&gt;INR/SNAD Disputes</li&gt; <li&gt;Negative Feedback</li&gt; <li&gt;Other transaction-related problems</li&gt; </ul&gt; </h2&gt;&lt;h2&gt;GUIDE.RELATED LINKS Related Help Pages <ul&gt; &lt;li&gt;False or missing contact information policy<br&qt; <a href="https://www.ebay.com/help/policies/identity-policies/false-missing-contact-information-policy?i d=4238"
