Buying limits and restrictions

<h2>To keep our marketplace safe for buyers and sellers, we occasionally place limits or restrictions on a member's buying activity. We may also restrict buying if we believe a member has violated an eBay policy.

</h2>

<h2><h3>If you receive a restriction, you'Il receive a notification explaining why it was applied and what you need to do to have it removed.</h3>

</h2>

<h2>Sellers may also block buyers from bidding on their listings. This helps us encourage and responsible buvina allows sellers to choose who they do business id="section1">What are buying limits?</h2>Buying limits are account blocks that limit your ability to purchase items on the site. They can be placed by sellers and by eBay.<h3>Buying limits placed by sellers</h3>Sellers can make their listings unavailable to a specific list of bidders. They can block buyers with low feedback scores or buyers they no longer wish to do business with.<h3>Buying limits placed by eBay</h3>lf we place a buying limit on your account, we'll send you a message with the next steps to restore your ability to purchase items or make bids. We may limit your ability to bid on auctions or make a Best Offer if:You are bidding on an expensive itemWe need to add a payment method - opens in new window or tab to your accountYou have a history of canceled orders for not paying on timeYou've suddenly and significantly increased your bidding activity</li&qt;<li&qt;You and buying have several items awaiting paymentTipThe best way to avoid buyer restrictions is to pay for your items quickly.<h3>Removing buying limits</h3>lf a seller blocked you from bidding on their listings, you'll receive a notification when you try to place a bid. You also won't be able to bid on that seller's items using another account. If we've limited your buying activities, you'Il receive a message providing the next steps. For example, you may need to:Pay for items you've already committed to buyAdd a payment method to your accountVerify your identity<h2 id="section2">What are buying restrictions?</h2>A buying restriction means you won't be able to make any purchases on eBay. It is usually placed on an account due to a policy violation. If you have a buying restriction on your account, you won't be able to buy items or bid on auctions until the issue is resolved.<h3>Why are buying restrictions applied?</h3>Generally, restrictions are applied when it appears you might be violating our site policies. Buying restrictions can be applied to your account if:You have multiple accounts, and one or more has a buying restriction already placed itYou violating our Abusive buyer on are policyYour account is under review for other <:a href="https://www.ebay.com/help/policies/default/ebays-rules-policies?id=4205">policy violations<h3>Removing buying restrictions</h3>lf you receive a restriction, you' Il receive an email as well as a message in href="http://mesg.ebay.com/mesgweb/ViewMessages/0" target=" blank">My eBay - opens in new window or tab explaining why it was applied, and what you need to do to have it removed.<h2 id="section3">Avoiding buying limits restrictions</h2>To avoid buying limits and restrictions. can:Only bid on or buy items you plan to pay forPay for items as soon as possibleImprove your feedback profile by leaving feedback for sellersAdd a payment method to your accountEstablish a buying history by purchasing items that require immediate payment</h2> <h2>Buyer restrictions eBay,eBay buyer restrictions,eBay buying restrictions</h2>