Resolving unpaid items with buyers

<h2>After you’ve made a sale on eBay, it’s usually a smooth process to complete the transaction with the buyer, but sometimes you might find yourself in a situation where the buyer hasn’t yet paid for the item they bought.

</h2>

<h2><h3>When you enable Preferences for items awaiting payment, you can customize your settings so that orders that aren't paid for will be canceled automatically after 4 or more calendar days.</h3>

</h2&qt;

<h2>lf that happens, you can cancel the order after 4 or more calendar days. If the listing was a single quantity. Buy It Now item, it will be relisted automatically unless you choose not to relist.&It;h2 id="section1">Reminding buyers to pay</h2>After a buyer wins an auction or commits to buy an item, we send emails reminding them to pay for the order 24 hours and 48 hours after the You href="https://www.ebay.com/help/action?topicid=4083" listing ended. can also get in touch with your buyer - opens in new window or tab to remind them.If the buyer still hasn't paid 4 calendar days after the listing ended, you can cancel the order by selecting the Cancel order button below and choosing Buyer hasn't paid in the drop down menu. If you' ve sent a combined invoice, you' Il be able to cancel the more days after the date the invoice was sent to the href="https://www.ebay.com/help/action?topicid=4136"&qt;Cancel order</a&qt;Once you cancel the order, your item will be relisted automatically if it was a single quantity, Buy It Now item, unless you choose not to relist. We'Il also remove any feedback left by the buyer. Once the order has been canceled, you can make a second chance offer to the next highest bidder if you listed using the auction format.It's important to cancel any unpaid items within 30 days from the day the buyer commits to buy so the item can be relisted. TipYou don't have to contact the buyer if they haven't paid – we'll send them reminders to pay. If you don't receive payment, you can cancel the order after 4 calendar days.<h2 id="section2">Using Preferences for items awaiting payment</h2>You can automate how you manage unpaid items href="https://www.ebay.com/Cancel/Preference/UnpaidPurchase" our Selling preferences - opens in new window or tab page. For items awaiting payment, you can select how long buyers have to pay for items. Typically, orders that aren't paid for will be canceled automatically after 4 or more calendar days. For combined invoices, the time frame is based on when the most recent item on the invoice was purchased. You can also customize your settings to relist unpaid single quantity, Buy It Now items straight away. Additionally, any feedback left by the buyer of an unpaid item will be removed.Enable Preferences for items awaiting payment - opens in new window or tab<:/a>:TipYou can exclude certain buyers from having orders canceled automatically when you enable Preferences for items awaiting payment on your selling account. You can only use Preferences for items awaiting payment when eBay checkout, which means that the buyer pays through the standard checkout flow, not cash on delivery or with a check. If you accept cash on local pickup, checks, or money orders on your listings, you':ll need to remove these payment methods if you want to use Preferences for items awaiting payment on those listings. While Preferences for items awaiting payment is available on most eBay listings, including items listed in eBay Motors, Parts & Dr. Accessories, it can $\%439$; be used for vehicle listings in eBay Motors. If you've sold a car and haven't received payment, you manually cancel order in <:a can an href="https://www.ebay.com/sh/ord/?filter=status:AWAITING_PAYMENT" target="_blank">Seller Hub opens in new window or tab or My eBay Sold. - opens in new window or tab</h2>

<h2>buyer hasnt paid,buyer has not paid,eBay buyer not paying,eBay buyer does not pay,how long does a buyer have to pay on eBay,unpaid item case,eBay open unpaid item case,no payment received,unpaid items,automatic resolution</h2>