<li&gt;The reason and the duration of the ban (1, 3, 7, 30 days, or indefinite) will be displayed to again after the time period specified.</li&gt; &lt;li&gt;To appeal an indefinite ban, you can write to askcommunity@ebay.com</a&gt;. Please be sure to include your username in the appeal email and to write in from the email address associated with your account.</li&gt; </ul&gt; I can't post in the Discussion Board forums! If you can't log in or post to an eBay Discussion Board, please first verify that you're using the correct Username and password. If that's not the issue, check the following: <ul&gt; &lt;li&gt;Some boards are only visible to those who are part of specific eBay programs. You must be a member of that program and log in to verify your membership.</li&qt; &lt;li&qt;Other boards have different permissions based on your assigned role in the eBay Community. &It;ul> &It;li>For example, anyone can post a question to our Member to Member support board, but only the person who posted the question and members of our Community Mentors group can respond.</li&gt; &lt;/ul&gt; &lt;/li&gt; &lt;li&gt;lf you receive a message when attempting to login that your Community account has been banned, the duration and reason should be displayed within this message.</li&gt; &lt;li&gt;Any ban one of your accounts has received prohibits posting by all usernames you own or have access to, and those in your household. If you have received a ban, you will be able to post again once the duration of your ban has completed.&lt:/li> &lt:li>A Community ban only restricts your ability to use the eBay Boards and Groups. It does not impact your ability to buy or sell. During the term of a ban, you may continue to buy and sell as usual.</li&gt; &lt;/ul&gt; How can I read the Seller News Announcements if a Community ban prevents me from viewing the boards? <ul&gt; &lt;ll&gt;You can view our Announcements board by logging out completely. You may need to clear your cache and cookies to access the Announcements board with this method.</li&qt; &lt;li&qt;You can utilize a Private Browsing window or Incognito window to access the Announcements board.</li&gt; </ul&gt; I shouldnt have to take extra steps to access this board. Cant you just let me read the boards even though I am banned? Though we understand that you may need to review the you when attempting to access the eBay Community.&lt:/li&gt: &lt:li&gt:You'll be able to start posting announcements we host within our Community, losing access to the discussion boards is a consequence of violating our Rules of Engagement. You can use the workarounds provided previously moving forward. </h2&gt;&lt;h2&gt;GUIDE.DETAILED_INFORMATION Announcements The announcements page is a great way to keep up with what's happening on eBay. We'll post any upcoming changes to the site or eBay policies here. We also post giveaways, certain promotions and competitions here. Accessing the Announcements page: &lt;ul&gt; &lt;li&gt;Direct link: &lt;a

&lt;br&gt; &nbsp; Discussion Boards Customers can connect with other members to discuss eBay topics on Discussion Boards. They are some of the best places to learn useful tips and share information. Types of discussion boards (also known as discussion forums) include community boards for helping members solve problems, category-specific boards that are great for collectors, and general discussion. Requirements for using discussion boards: &lt;ul&gt; &lt;li&gt;Have a registered eBay account.&lt;/li&gt; &lt;/ul&gt; How to subscribe to a thread: &lt;ol&gt; &lt;li&gt;Sign in to your eBay account.</li&gt; &lt;li&gt;Click ...
